Offense charged: Social Security Number Misuse; Aggravated Identity Theft

Date of Detention Hearing: March 31, 2011

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(1) Defendant is alleged to have lived for approximately 30 years using the identity

01 of an individual with the initials M.L.S., using the true social security number and date of birth
02 of that individual, obtaining identity cards and state employment benefits under false pretenses
03 by using the identity of M.L.S. He is associated with other alias names and a number of different
04 dates of birth and social security numbers, in addition to M.L.S.

05 (2) During a search of defendant's residence, shotguns and ammunition were found.
06 He is alleged to have a lengthy criminal record under the name of M.L.S. that includes a number
07 of firearms charges and multiple failures to appear for court and failures to comply with court
08 orders. A warrant from Pierce County is active and extraditable in Pierce County, and a warrant
09 from Covington is active and extraditable statewide.

10 (3) Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to uncertainty concerning his true
11 identity, association with multiple alias identifiers, a history of failing to appear, history of failing
12 to comply, active warrants and unverified financial information. He poses a risk of danger due
13 to criminal history, the presence of firearms in defendant's residence, and inconsistent
14 information regarding drug history.

15 (4) There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 16 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 17 danger to other persons or the community.

18 It is therefore ORDERED:

19 (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the 20 Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent
21 practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody
22 pending appeal;

01 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 02 counsel;

03 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 04 Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant
05 is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose
06 of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

07 (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to 08 counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States
09 Pretrial Services Officer.

10 DATED this 1st day of April, 2011.
